Metro Boston Coaches Academy Opens New Office

On October 31st, the Institute opened the Metro Boston Coaches Academy (MBCA) office within the Boston Teamworks facility in Dorchester.

Established in 2005, Boston Teamworks is the first multi-tenant non-profit center in the country focused on youth sports and education, and is a collaboration of youth-based sports non-profits who share office space, administrative costs, and best practices. Current tenants include: America SCORES New England, GoodSports, MetroLacrosse and Women's Sports Foundation Go Girls Go!

"It is a great opportunity for us to work alongside this group of sport-based youth development organizations who have done so much to improve youth sports in Boston," stated Christopher Hickey, the MBCA Executive Director. "This location will enable us to expand our work with the Boston Teamworks tenants and moreover, with youth sports in the greater metro Boston area," added Hickey.

To date, the MBCA has provided training services to America SCORES New England, MetroLacrosse and Women's Sports Foundation Go Girls Go!

Support the Institute with Your Holiday Shopping

With the holidays approaching, an easy way to financially support the Institute is through your online shopping. From the Director's Chair

We continue to set new levels of performance with 15 workshops completed this year and one more scheduled.

Thanks for your support and I am looking forward on reviewing the progress we have made over the past 12 months in our December newsletter.

Sincerely,

Christopher Hickey
